

Urgent Notice of PM-ASDS Admission Test for Summer 2020

Dear Applicants

As the continuous spread of Coronavirus (COVID 19), Jahangirnagar University extended the vacation till 25th of April and the situation is not improving yet. So the coordination committee decided to pro-pond the scheduled date (April 24, 2020) of admission test announced for the Professional Masters in Applied Statistics and Data Science (PM-ASDS) for Summer 2020. The revised date will be announced later after normalizing the situation of Coronavirus. But the Online application system will remain open until the announcement of new date of admission test. If someone is not able to complete the Online application due to the current situations such as isolation, staying at home, lockdown and other adverse conditions. He/She will make on spot registration at the department office on the date of admission. In that case he/she have to inform his/her desire to the committee member by SMS (Mobile: +8801721496324) for the smooth and successful arrangement of admission test.

We are really very sorry for these unavoidable circumstances. Please stay at home and be safe.

Prof. Dr. M. Mazibar Rahman
